

PRAYER

The Reverend Douglas Tanner, Executive Director, Faith and Politics Institute, Washington, D.C., offered the following prayer:

Almighty God, we come before You this day aware that the 2 weeks since this House last convened have brought us into a new season. We have gathered with our families to celebrate Passover and Easter. The Tidal Basin has been graced by cherry blossoms and beavers, and buds have broken from the trees. We thank You that even on a cool, cloudy, windy day like this we can trust that in Washington the winter is past and spring has come.

We pray especially today for those in Balkan lands for whom the past 2 weeks have been so different, for those who have lived and continue to live every minute in terror, finding it hard to trust that anything is past except for their dreams, or that anything is coming except for more deprivation, despair, violence, and terror.

As we face this harsh reality, Lord, deliver us from shallowness and pomposity. Grant us the grace to accept the things we cannot change, the courage to change the things we can, and the wisdom to know the difference. Amen.

THE JOURNAL

The SPEAKER. The Chair has examined the Journal of the last day's proceedings and announces to the House his approval thereof.
